Buster Duque: A Mexican urban artist who grew up in Monterrey, N.L., he began his journey in illegal graffiti in the year 2000.

His work quickly stood out for its distinctive cursive flare hand style and his bold presence on the streets, which led him to document the culture in the iconic Wild Street video series—regarded as one of the best graffiti compilations in Mexico.

He is also known for blending ornamental elements into his lettering styles. Creator of the Lettering Malandro movement, a unique form of calligraphy inspired by the fusion of graffiti, gang lettering, and tattoo culture.
